

An easy choice to make

Service was 'second to none'

WITH a family and hectic career, time is precious for Burnie businessman Shane Walker and his wife Jo.

So when the couple decided to build a new home, Hotondo Homes matched their situation to a tee.

"Like a lot of people, we lead very hectic lifestyles, so ease was probably one of the biggest factors when choosing a building company," Mr Walker said.

"We wanted a company that would take on board what we wanted when it came to design, colours and fittings and would basically take on the rest for us."

Having heard "nothing but positive feedback" about the company prior to completing their home, the Walker's could not be happier with their decision to choose Hotondo Homes.

"It's certainly a big decision choosing the right builders because building a home is such a big investment and you want to make sure you get it right," he said.

"The quality of the product and the level of service was second to none."

Admitting that the couple

"changed their minds on a regular basis" when it came to elements of the design of their home throughout the building process, Mr Walker said the clan at Hotondo could not have been more understanding.

"We were always kept in the loop on how things were progressing through continual updates and we were consulted every step of the way," he said.

"We changed our minds on a regular basis in regards to fittings and it was never a problem.

"We couldn't be happier with the final product . . . it's fantastic."

Burnie businessman Shane Walker and his wife Jo could not be happier with their decision to choose Hotondo Homes to build their new house.